

K-Love and its sister station, Airl, are the only two radio stations that I listen to in my local area. K-Love provides positive music and a rare smut-free forum that is appropriate for listeners of all ages. It would be a great disservice to replace a gem of a radio station like K-Love with anything else. I feel so strongly about this that I financially support both K-Love and Airl radio. Thank you.